Clients Need Safety Tips, Too!

The NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and SCAOR have worked hard to keep REALTOR® Safety foremost in everyone's minds. But what about your clients? They, too, face some dangers in allowing strangers into their homes or visiting other people's properties. Share this valuable advice with everyone, and you'll help them learn to protect themselves against crime: Remind sellers that strangers will be walking through their home during showings or open houses. Tell them to hide any valuables in a safe place, including prescription medications and alcohol, as well as personal information such as bank statements that could be used for identity theft.
